K. OF C. MINSTRELS AGAIN TONIGHT

By popular demand the K. of C. minstrels will be repeated this evening at St. Mary's Hall at 8 o'clock. This will be the last chance for the public to witness this up-to-date production, and another large audience is anticipated. The same talent will be in the cast and the entire chorus will have the same enthusiasm that has spelled success for the show and made necessary the repetition this evening. An advertisement elsewhere in this issue will tell the story. Dancing will be enjoyed as usual.

"YOKOHOMA MAID" DELIGHTS MANY

The performance of the "Yokohoma Maid," the opera, given at Mechanics' Hall Wednesday evening by the American Mechanics' Glee Club of this city, drew a big audience, which hugely enjoyed every minute of the charming and amusing opera. The singing, directed by Mr. Swart was excellent, the music for the opera being especially tuneful. The staging of the performance as well as the acting of the principals was both picturesque and clever to a degree, as could be expected with Mr. Richards as coach. The wedding scene was particularly charming. Tonight the "Yokohoma Maid" will be repeated at the same place and hour, and with no Mendelssohn Club concert in progress, an even larger audience is expected.

That evening Edward E. Wiberg was arrested for the same offense by Officer Simpson. He was arraigned before Judge Schirck this morning, and was discharged.

BOOSTED PRICES "DUE TO THE TAX"

Revenue Agents Arrest Maryland Storekeeper on Charge of Profiteering With Luxury Tax as Subterfuge.

James M. Murray, proprietor of a store at Annapolis Junction, Md., and president of the George M. Murray Sons Canning Company, was arraigned before United States Commissioner Supple at Baltimore Wednesday, to answer the charge of violating Section 1319 of the new revenue bill by misrepresenting the tax on his wares to increase his prices.
Murray was arrested on complaint of revenue agents who visited his store and bought ice cream and soft drinks. It is alleged he displayed signs notifying his patrons of increased prices "due to the tax" and in excess of the amount imposed. He was taken before United States Commissioner Supple and released on $500 bond.

The penalty for ascribing part of a price to a tax "knowing that such statement is false or that the tax is not so great as the portion of such price ascribed to such price" is a fine not exceeding $1,000 or not more than one year's imprisonment, or both.
The case against Murray is one of the first to be prosecuted under Section 1319 of the revenue act. The bureau of internal revenue has announced its purpose to proceed vigorously against all tax profiteers.

Bishop Anderson's Visit.

A great number of people outside the membership of St. James' Methodist Episcopal Church will be glad to hear Bishop W. F. Anderson on Sunday, June 2nd. The bishop will speak at the corner of Fair and Pearl streets, where during his pastorate, he had many friends in the church and outside its pale.
For years Dr. Anderson was the secretary of the board of education of the Methodist Episcopal Church. On the morning of June 8th he will deliver his great address on "America's Call to the Moral Leadership of the World"—an address founded on observation and experience of travel during three trips to Europe, since the outbreak of the war. In Europe and Africa he had unusual advantages given him for securing inside information. Probably St. James' Church will be crowded that night by those who desire to hear the distinguished speaker who was once the popular pastor of the church.

Baragwanath Home From Peru.

John G. Baragwanath, son of Dr. T. H. Baragwanath, spent Monday night in this city with his parents. He has just returned from a trip to Peru as a consulting engineer for some large steel concerns in this country. Probably few Americans know western Peru and its metals as thoroughly as this young mining engineer. His prospecting trip was most successful, as he made some very valuable "finds" in metals. Mr. Baragwanath is a member of the firm of Kingston and Baragwanath, consulting engineers, 59 Broadway, New York.

NC-4'S DELAY IS UNEXPLAINED

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Washington, May 29.—The navy department early today was without knowledge of Lieutenant-Commander A. C. Read's plans for continuing his flight to Plymouth. The last dispatch said that the NC-4 would not start today. It had been planned to jump off for Plymouth early today, weather conditions permitting and what caused the decision to postpone the flight, navy officials could not say.

ULSTER GARDEN CLUB FIELD DAY

Members Will Visit Gardens of Saugerties on June 5—Interesting Meeting Held at Home of Mrs. E. Clarke Reed.

The meeting of the Ulster Garden Club held on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. Clarke Reed at Saugerties was a particularly entertaining and informing meeting. There was an exceptionally large attendance, including out of town guests, among whom was Mrs. Clum formerly Miss Corse of Saugerties, whose husband is now a consul in Cuba.
Mrs. Corse told very interestingly of the day of mourning for Theodore Roosevelt, in Santiago, the exercises being held about "Surrender Tree." She further told how a shoot from this tree had been planted and when of sufficient age it was planned to remove the same to the grave of ex-president Roosevelt. This was in line with the discussion by the club of the planting of memorial trees in honor of our men, who in the world war have made the supreme sacrifice. In further connection with the tree subject, it was advocated that where possible it was wise to plant evergreen trees at such points as there might in future arise a need for Community Christmas trees, etc., rather than to cut down each year, a sound tree for such purposes thus losing annually the life of one of these fine balsam trees.
All club members were urged to use their influence for the protecting of our native Pinkster and Laurel, which are yearly destroyed by pulling up the roots, as well as by cutting for children's day exercises, such quantities as to make possible the final extermination of both shrubs in the not distant future.
A very interesting feature of the meeting was the account given by Miss Mary Haldane of the Phillips town Garden Club, relative to the old garden which is being planted on "Constitution Island," the former home of Miss Warner, author of the "Wide, Wide World." Mrs. Russell Sage made purchase of Constitution Island, the former home of the Misses Warner, giving the same to the government as a memorial, with the provision that Miss Warner should share in the gift. The Phillips town Garden Club (Cold Springs) is endeavoring to restore and renew the old fashioned garden there, and asks for gifts of suitable flowers and plants for the fulfilling of this happily thought out memorial. Any one wishing to make such contributions should communicate with Miss Haldane at the Huntington. Furthermore, Miss Haldane told those present of the chain stretched across the island to the mainland to prevent the British from ascending the Hudson which chain was made by one, "Christophorus Tappen."

It was announced that on Thursday next, June 5th, the Ulster Garden Club would observe its annual Field Day, and the members would visit the gardens of Saugerties. Afterward catering at the home of Mrs. John Washburn for tea. The next regular meeting of the Garden Club will be held at the home of Mrs. E. C. Yorkland.

In connection with Tuesday's meeting mention should be made of the beautiful garden which Mrs. Reed has created at her lovely home. Stretching back from the river, toward the Catskills, it grows gradually from the more formal and highly cultivated beauty to the rear of the grounds, where wild flowers in profusion find their home, the back ground to the entire beautiful picture being the stately Catskill mountains.

FRANCO-AMERICAN MEMORIAL DAY

Wilson And Pershing To Speak At Graves of Our Dead—A Year Ago Enemy Planes Bombed Mourners And Disinterred Bodies.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Paris, May 29.—France will join hands with America tomorrow, Memorial Day, in honoring the memory of America's heroic dead. President Wilson is scheduled to deliver an address, at Surres, a suburb of Paris, while General Pershing will make a speech at Romagne near Verdun, where several thousand American soldiers are buried.

Scattered over the broad territory, which formed the old battle line, thousands of small American flags and a profusion of flowers are being strewn to mark the last resting places of the Americans, who gave up their lives to make the world a better and safer place to live in.

The War Time Observance.

It will be a different scene from the observance of Memorial Day in France one year ago. Then America was just beginning to throw her weight into the struggle for world liberty; the great German offensive was at its height and those programmed to witness the first ceremony of kind we held abroad, will recall with a sense of horror how an enemy airplane attempted to bomb a pathetic little village named Cantigny. Old men and women and little children, French civilians grateful to America for her aid in the war, had brought flowers with which to decorate the American graves, a couple of army chaplains and a handful of Salvation Army workers stood by and were mingling their tears with those of the fighting men, when the Boche airplane came into sight. A few days before some of our men had been buried nearer the front, and the German shells had torn up their graves. The same army chaplains had stolen out during the night and re-interred the remains.

A Year's Changes.

That will be the war time picture. To-day, the government, which sent its shell fire and bombs against the burial places of our dead has crumbled to earth, and the representatives of those who would bring order out of chaos into which the policy of ruthlessness plunged Germany have been staying at the historic Versailles to settle the difficulty.

For weeks past representatives of France and America have given their time and money to see that each of the 70,000 American heroes buried in France shall not be forgotten. The slogan is: "Let every grave of every American soldier be covered with flowers and marked with a small flag."

Services will be held in many churches in Paris and other French cities.

FATHER CUMMINGS SUCCEEDS HAYES

East Kingston Pastor Appointed to Irremovable Rectorship of St. Stephen's in New York Made Viceroy By Rise to Archbishopric of R. Rev. Hayes—A High Honor.

The Rev. Francis P. J. Cummings, pastor of St. Colman's Church, East Kingston, has been appointed to the irremovable rectorship of St. Stephen's Church, East Twenty-eighth street, made vacant by the promotion of the Right Rev. Patrick J. Hayes, D. D., to the Archbishopric of New York. Father Cummings's appointment was the result of a consensus held on April 30.

In assuming the rectorship of St. Stephen's, Father Cummings follows a succession of illustrious rectors. The first pastor of St. Stephen's was Dr. J. W. Cummings—who built the first church in the parish, at Madison avenue and Twenty-eighth street, in 1849, and five years later built the present edifice on East Twenty-eighth street, between Third and Lexington avenues, and running through to Twenty-ninth street. Dr. Cummings died in 1866, and was succeeded by the Rev. Dr. Edward McGlynn, who served as pastor for a period of twenty years. The Rev. Charles H. Colton, who had been an assistant under Dr. McGlynn, assumed the pastorate in 1887. Within seven years Father Colton succeeded in paying off a debt of $120,000, and in 1894 the church was consecrated. Father Colton, who was also chancellor of the diocese, remained as pastor until his consecration as Bishop of Buffalo, on August 24, 1903. He was succeeded by the Right Rev. Thomas F. Cusack, who, about the same time, was consecrated Titular Bishop of Themiocra and Auxiliary Bishop of New York. On July 5, 1915, Bishop Cusack was transferred to the See of Albany, and he was succeeded in St. Stephen's pastorate by another bishop, the present beloved archbishop of New York, the Most Rev. Patrick J. Hayes.

The Rev. Francis P. J. Cummings, the successor of this illustrious line, was ordained to the priesthood on May 27, 1899, just twenty years ago last Tuesday. He was educated at Manhattan College and at St. Joseph's Seminary, Dunwoodie. The first two years of his priesthood were spent at the Church of the Ascension in West One Hundred and Seventh street. He then served in succession at St. Bridget's, St. Matthew's at Rosendale, St. Lucy's, St. Thomas the Apostle's, and at Mt. Kisco. In 1911 he was promoted to the pastorate at St. Colman's, East Kingston.

MEMORIAL DAY WILSON MESSAGE

President Urges Fulfillment of Duty Laid Upon America By Sacrifice of Sons in France.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Washington, May 29.—Thoughts now are centered toward the liberty of the world. This sentiment was received in a message from President Wilson to his countrymen today and reiterated the president's confidence in the future of the League of Nations.

The message, made public at the White House offices today, follows: "My fellow countrymen: Memorial Day wears this year an added significance and I wish, if you see my message, to take part in its objects and in expressing the sentiments, which it inevitably suggests. In observing the day, we commemorate not only the reunion of our country, but also now the liberation of the world from one of the most serious dangers, to which free government and life of men were ever exposed. We have buried the gallant and now immortal men who took part in the great war of liberation.
"They came to the field of battle with the high spirit and pure heart of crusaders. We must never forget the duty that their sacrifice has laid upon us of fulfilling their hopes and their purpose to the utmost. This, it seems to me, is the impressive lesson and the inspiring mandate of the day."
"WOODROW WILSON."

WAR DEPARTMENT TO SELL BEEF

Bids Invited From 1,200 Hospitals And Public Institutions on One Hundred Million Pound War Surplus.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Washington, May 29.—The war department's surplus stocks of meat, totalling more than 100,000,000 pounds, will be offered for sale in America.

The director of sales of the department today announced that invitations were being sent to some 1,200 of the largest hospitals and charitable and penal institutions to submit bids for any portion of this surplus, which now is being held in ten warehouses distributed throughout the country. The announcement was without comment, but it was generally believed the decision was influenced by the widespread criticism, which followed the recently announced intention of the department to sell its surplus meats to European nations.

The surplus holdings of the department total 112,000,000 pounds. Officials stated that the meat supply was such a form that it can not be placed on the open market, and they feared if it were disposed of to institutions, where much of it could be kept for a long period, the transaction would have but little effect, if any, upon the general meat situation of the country.

FIVE DIVISIONS STAY IN EUROPE

Until Peace Is Signed Is Tentative Plan Of War Department—8,000 American Soldiers In Siberia and 4,400 In North Russia Ready To Leave.

By Telegraph to The Freeman. Washington, May 29.—The future of the American army in France is still undetermined, Secretary Baker and General March, chief of staff today told the house military committee. It is now the plan of the war department to maintain five divisions in Europe until the peace terms have been settled.

"The scheme for policing Germany will be with the Allies," General March said. "We have based our estimate of 500,000 men on the number necessary for the regular army in this country, and a possible army in Europe. We have not yet been informed if we shall have to maintain an army in Germany."

There are now 311 officers and 8,327 men in Siberia, General March testified. There are 4,400 men in Northern Russia, that are just about to come out, he added. "We are striving to replace drafted men in the Siberian army with regulars," he said. "Troops are necessary in Siberia to guard the railroads."

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

New York, May 29.—The most important feature of the trading at the opening of the stock market was the usual incident to a continued bull movement, the recovery of dividends. Steel common selling ex-dividend of 1 1/4 per cent, opened at 107 1/2, moving up to 108, a net gain of 1/2, while Southern Pacific, ex-dividend, started at 111 1/4, a gain of 1/2. American Smelting, ex-dividend, showed a net gain of 1 1/4 at 82 1/2. Most of the other issues showed fractional advances. Marine preferred rose two points to 126 1/2, but quickly reacted to 124 1/2. Mexican Petroleum was the most active of the oil issues, moving up 2 1/2 to 186. The traction issues were somewhat active, B. R. T. making a gain of 1/2 and Interboro sold up nearly one point.

Southern Pacific was the most prominent feature during the forenoon, rising to 114, a net gain of 3 1/4 points. American Smelting recovered its dividend, selling up to 82 1/2. Crucible Steel rose 1 1/4 to 83 and Steel common hung around 108. American Woolen made the largest gain, jumping six points to 95. The oil stocks were somewhat heavy, with the exception of Mexican Petroleum, which rose to 186.

The market closed generally strong; government bonds unchanged; railway and other bonds steady.

HOW WHAT ARE KNOWN AS "STREAMER" HEADLINES GOT A START.

—Large "streamer" headlines, the kind that run one to three lines deep clear across the front page, first appeared in American newspapers as the result of the war with Spain. Even the European war did not produce any such glaring headlines as appeared during the Spanish-American war.

But the Spanish war "yellow" journalism was in its heyday, and it found a powerful weapon in the glaring "streamer." It not only increased in width but also in length, until some of the most sensational papers used one which occupied fully half of the first page, except a little corner in which the name of the paper appeared in small type. In the absence of exciting news, certain papers of the "yellow" shade used a method that was at least questionable. A half page would be given to the word "BIG BATTLE" in the largest, blackest letters. Underneath these two words and directly under the fold of the page would appear some qualifying phrase in smaller type, such as "Expected Tomorrow." The paper, as it appeared on the stand or in the hands of the newsboy, showed the public only the staring, startling "BIG BATTLE" part of the headline. For a time the victimized purchasers laughed, but soon the papers practicing the deception became discredited even when they did have big news.

BEATINGS OF HUMAN HEART

How Man's Primary Organ Might Be Utilized, if One Could Only Discover Method.

It is an astounding fact that the average heart beats 36,000,000 of strokes every twelve months, working, resting, or sleeping. In that period it does work sufficient to fire with their present velocity a dozen of the largest projectiles that were used in the war, or to lift a light cruiser clean out of the water, says London Tit-Bits.

If such is the energy of a single man's heart, what is the aggregate force of 3,000,000 men in heartbeats? If it were concentrated into one explosion it would be sufficient to destroy utterly the Kiel canal.

Such an explosion operating in a moment of time has never been engineered by man, although nature has exceeded it many times in volcanic energies.

To put it another way, the hearts of 3,000,000 men force a broad river of blue, 900 feet wide and 6 feet deep over a course of seven miles in a single hour, and in the course of a day as far as from Liverpool to Edinburgh, and in a week as far as from Paris to Constantinople!

How Big Logs Were Handled.

In one of the great Virginia walnut groves where thousands of feet of lumber have been felled to meet government requirements, a ton-and-a-half truck was continuously in service hauling the logs out of the woods over rough mountain roads to the mills. To facilitate the work of loading the heavy logs on the truck, the owner devised a novel contrivance that proved highly efficient.

By attaching a bracket to the propeller shaft, on which he fastened an ordinary log chain, it was only necessary to jack up the rear end and shift into low gear to hustle the logs aboard. Winding the chain around the shaft, which with the bracket made a very serviceable pulley, rolled the logs off the skids and on to the truck quickly and with little effort.

Naturally this method of loading put a tremendous strain directly upon the propeller shaft, but, according to the owner, without in the least damaging the truck or causing any mechanical trouble whatever.

Why Ostrich Raisers Are Anxious.

Since the slump in the ostrich feather market occurred in 1914, schemes have been devised in this country to minimize the losses to ostrich farmers, many of whom had no other capital than their flocks of these giant birds. The eggs of the ostrich have long been a staple product on the market of Port Elizabeth and other ostrich centers, and have been mixed with hens' eggs by bakers in the manufacture of cakes and pastry. Lately two sealed cans, each containing 20 ostrich eggs in liquid form, have been shipped to London as an experiment. The results are awaited with interest. In large quantities, ostrich eggs packed are quoted at Port Elizabeth as 74 to 18 cents each. One of these eggs weighs between two and three pounds, and is equivalent to about two dozen hens' eggs.

Why Some Never Reach the Top.

"There are very few who ever rise to the top anywhere," Rabbi Leo M. Franklin said that to the members of the Open Forum recently, whereupon someone demanded, "What is the top and what is the bottom?" "The top is the place where the man does an honest day's work for an honest day's pay," said Rabbi Franklin, "and through which honest day's work he realizes the best in himself and at the same time adds something to the sum in the realm of life. The bottom is the place where the man does the least he can with the most thought of himself and least thought of somebody else."

His Ultimate End.

The children were discussing a famous soldier, when four-year-old Benny asked: "Who is he, anyway?" "Well," replied the third-grade Harold, "he's a wonderful brave man who, after awhile will be a statue."

DADDY'S EVENING FAIRY TALE

By Mary Graham Bonner

BUNCH OF KEYS.

The keys were all jingling on the key ring in the man's pocket. After a while he opened a little drawer in his safe, took out something he wanted to work over, and laid his keys on his desk beside him, where he could keep his eyes on them.

After a while the first key moved a little and said in a key voice which only a key could hear: "Let us tell of our adventures and of the places we see. The master, when he uses one of us, holds the others in his hand so we can't see what the key is doing which is being used."

"He can't hear us talk for he doesn't know the language of keys and we won't disturb him."

"Sometimes," said a second key, "I wish he could hear us. For once we were stolen and he only just got us back in time."

"Oh, that was a narrow escape, and how I did long to call out that we were being stolen. How dreadfully we would have felt to have opened the master's drawers and doors without the master using us."

"Yes, that was a narrow escape," said the biggest key of all, "but the master caught the robber before he had really gotten away with us. He chased after him and caught him. My, we did have a run that time! And how we hated to move!"

"Let's tell of the places we open," said another key. "We can all keep secrets."

"That's so," said still another key. "Well, I open a little part of a side-board where candy is kept. After meals I am used to open this part so the candy can be taken out and given to the master's children and their friends. I am also used when they're giving parties or when they're having special treats."

"I'm used," said another key, "to open a big money box. I see bills and change and lots of fine money. The money itself isn't so fine, but it can buy lots of nice things if people spend it without being selfish. The money once told me that they all loved the master because he was so generous."

"But they said that some of them had come from a young girl who kept them in her pockets and told her friends how poor she was and then they would give up things and get things for her. Then, when she was all alone she would take out the money and buy herself some things all for herself."

"Oh, the money said that that was horrible. The girl was so selfish. But, in getting changed, some of that money went into the shops and then into the master's drawer, and when that money was taken out again it would be spent in a fine way, for they had heard the master talk."

"I open a drawer in which birthday presents are locked up before the birthday has come," said another key. "I know so many secrets, all about presents and nice things for celebrations."

"I open the cake tin," said another key, "and my master always gives me to my mistress around meal time. Often she keeps me and I'm not on the key ring, but there is going to be a birthday cake tomorrow and she wanted to be sure no one would see that the birthday cake was already in the cake tin, all decorated with candles."

"So she gave me to the master to keep. Oh, won't there be joy tomorrow, when I open the cake tin and the candles are all lighted. There is going to be a party."

"So I'll be used too," said the candy drawer key.

"And I will too," said the birthday drawer key.

"And I will too," said the key which opened the money box, "for some little treats will be bought."

"Well jingle tomorrow, all right," said the bunch of keys in chorus, "if we are going to open up secrets and pleasures and treats for a birthday celebration."

And the keys all sang:

If you're a key, a key,
You can see, can see,
The opening of keys,
For girls and boys.

For the keys opened many drawers and doors which held birthday presents for the master's children.

Best Cheese Popular.

The people of Norway have for many years shown a success of the goat as a milk producer and money maker. One of the Norwegian farmers' principal pursuits is goat cheese making, and the popularity of this table delicacy is evidenced by the fact that Americans have been buying hard to "keep" it, with little success.—Ezra.

Irresistible Sand. One of the most interesting and remarkable of the many regions for the observation of sand dunes lies between Bordeaux and Bayonne, in Gascony. The sea here throws every year upon the beach, along a line of 100 miles in length, some 3,000,000 cubic yards of sand. The prevailing westerly winds continue picking up the surface particles from the westward shore, where they are again deposited, and the entire ridge by this means alone moves gradually inland. In the course of years there has thus been formed a complex system of dunes, all approximately parallel with the coast and with one another and of all altitudes up to 250 feet. These are marching steadily inland at a rate of from three to six feet a year, whole villages having sometimes been torn down to prevent burial, and rebuilt at a distance.

Average Life Nearly Doubled. From 1843 to 1910, 23,000,000 deaths from the plague or "black death" occurred, which was one-fourth of the entire population of the world at that time. In 1781, 90 per cent of the Black Sea nation died before reaching the age of 20 years. The average length of life in the sixteenth century was only 27 years, while in this, the twentieth century, the average life is 45 years. In India, however, the average life today is only 24 years.

We are reminded to see what the science of medicine is accomplishing in our more civilized countries, where ignorance and superstition do not prevail to any very great extent.

Dr. Loughran has planted his garden on "The Knoll," and is getting ready to open up in the near future. Raymond Crispell is attending a school for farming in France not far from the German border.

The village folk are soon to have a treat, the famous Jubilee Singers are to give a concert in our village church on Tuesday evening, June 10. Keep it in mind.

Mr. and Mrs. Bach of Columbia University were visitors in the village on Tuesday, looking up Hurley architecture.

Grant Smith and son, Levan, went to Albany on Monday. Mr. Smith has landed a nice position in the state highway department.

Richard Wynkoop, who is well known in the village, has given up business in New York city, and has taken permanent residence in Kingston.

The Mason family has a fine new auto-truck; the body is done in natural wood. The truck is provided with seats so that the truck will be a most convenient affair for country use.

Mrs. Osterhoudt died last Saturday night. Although the family is a comparatively new one in the village, it has won a high position in the esteem of us all. Mrs. Osterhoudt's illness is of long duration, going back for many years, during which time she has been a painful sufferer from a combination of ailments during which, however, Mrs. Osterhoudt has won and retained the admiration of us all for the fortitude, cheerfulness as well as her hopefulness; she has borne herself up under her afflictions, where many of us would have grown weary and even succumbed under the burden. Mrs. Osterhoudt has maintained a most optimistic and buoyant spirit that kept up her interest in all that went on about her, while her winsome manner endeared her to all, who were fortunate to become acquainted with her. Besides her husband, she leaves a married son and a daughter who has been her most intimate companion for years and by whose unremitting care the long periods of illness were made comfortable. The funeral services, which took place on Tuesday afternoon, were held exactly according to the wishes of Mrs. Osterhoudt, who had made careful and complete preparations for such occasion. Rev. Mr. Beekman of Johnstown, an old time friend and pastor of the family and the Rev. Mr. Durfee of the village church conducted the services. As Mrs. Osterhoudt had always been a very active woman in church work and all that pertains to it, the themes naturally were along this line. Their addresses were most heartily followed and appreciated. They were assisted by the Rev. Mr. Thompson of Glasco and the Rev. Mr. Dangremont of High Falls, who had come as friends of the family to pay last respect to Mrs. Osterhoudt. Mrs. Osterhoudt and Mr. TenEyck sang two musical selections, especially selected out by Mrs. Osterhoudt as favorite hymns, "Jesus is Mine" and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus." There was a very large number of friends present from Glasco, Saugerties, Kingston and Shady, while our village folks were well represented. From Flatbush, the former home of the family there was a representative from every family in that village. The day was simply a perfect one which made the service even the more beautiful.

In addition to the testimony of error by the officiating clergymen and demonstrated by the large number of friends and relatives present was that of the profusion of flowers of every variety sent in from all directions; one beautiful cluster came from friends in Albany. A grandchild had been expected in the family for some time and while the son, Raymond-Osterhoudt, was on his way to Kingston from the funeral, word came that the expected heir, a son, had arrived.

LOAN ASSN'S APPEALED TO

By Government as Being One of Greatest Aids in Campaign to Provide Needed Houses—Uptown Association's Attitude Outlined By Secretary Connolly.

The United States government has made a special appeal to the Savings and Loan Associations in our country to encourage thrift and home building and owning as one of the greatest after-war benefits, and in reply to an inquiry of The Freeman, Arthur C. Connolly, for more than twenty-years secretary and attorney of the Kingston Co-operative Savings and Loan Association, stated their attitude in this appeal as follows:

Opportunity For Thrift.
The war has been teaching us lessons of thrift. Now is the opportune time for the individual to enlist in the movement for a thriftier nation, and such enlistment, locally, would mean a thriftier Kingston. The Savings and Loan Associations, unselfish in their purpose and workings, have fostered for a century the idea that "The American Home is the Safeguard of American Liberties," and have adopted this sentiment as their motto and ideal. These associations have two branches of work. One is to encourage systematic savings and for that purpose its members agree to deposit a fixed amount monthly, upon which the association pays dividends at a rate usually higher than other banking institutions can afford to pay. The other side is loaning money to members for home building. These loans are repaid in monthly installments of principal and interest, usually in about the same amount as the borrower would pay for rent of a similar house, and thus, he becomes practically his own landlord and in comparatively short time has his home fully paid for, without a much greater effort than would have been required of him to meet his rent obligation had he been renting of some one else.

Can Borrow 75 Per Cent.
In order to purchase or build a home with the aid of the association, the borrower must have about 25 per cent of the money required and the association loans him the balance. Since the close of the war, our association has had an unusually large number of applications for loans and we are glad to be of service to the increasing number of prospective home-owners, because we believe that in so doing we are helping to build up Kingston in the most substantial way. The expense of conducting a Savings and Loan Association is very small indeed, and all its members, both savers and borrowers, share in the profits in semi-annual dividends. They are under the supervision of the state banking department, by which they are examined annually, and to which they report all their transactions.

Association's Broader Field
Although the growth of Savings and Loan Associations in this state as well as throughout the United States, during the past ten years, has been enormous, it looks now as if, during the next ten years, they would far surpass in size and influence the most sanguine expectations of those who have been giving their time and energy to advance the co-operative movement. The organization of the State of New York Land Bank and the Federal Land Bank, both designed solely to furnish Savings and Loan Associations with money necessary to finance home building and owning, has given a much broader field of usefulness and at the same time imposed upon them a duty to aid, to their utmost, in helping people to pay for their homes. We recognize this obligation and are ready to assist in every way possible in promoting home building and owning in Kingston at this time, being firmly convinced that average building costs will not fall below present standards for a long time to come and that now is the time to foster and develop habits of thrift and the ideal of the home.

HERE AND THERE ABOUT THE TOWN

The Stroller Hears Discussion as to Whether Singing is an Art or a Gift—There Are a Lot of Folks Who Sing. Who Can't Sing.

"Have you been to any of these Community Sings?" asked the customer as he applied a light to his pipe, and leaned back more comfortably in the chair.

"I have not been able to find the time," replied the busy barber, "but to my mind they are a mighty fine thing, for I am a firm believer in singing as an aid to health."

"In what way?" asked the customer.

"Lots of ways," retorted the barber, "the use of the voice expands the lungs, and exercises the muscles of the throat."

"It would seem to me," interrupted the customer, "that those muscles are the ones constantly exercised by women and barbers."

"There you go with that stale joke about the barber monopolizing a conversation while playing his trade," said the barber sarcastically, "but to get back to the subject it seems to me that singing makes one feel more cheerful and happy. The happy person is the one who goes humming about his work."

"That may be all true," conceded the customer, "but just the same here are a lot of folks who sing, who can't sing."

"I agree with you," replied the barber, "and it is generally the ones who do the most criticizing who have a voice that sounds like a cracked egg in a damp cellar when they attempt to sing."

"Do you believe that singing is an art or a gift?" asked the customer.

"When I hear some people sing," replied the barber, "I wish that it was a gift and they would present it to some one else."

"But that is not answering the question," persisted the customer.

"Singing is both an art and a gift," replied the barber, "but like everything else it needs cultivation. Community sings make for better community spirit."

"Well let's go to the next one then," said the customer.

No Snowballs. No Lectures.
Fines having been imposed upon a number of students in a well-known college for snowballing in the college garden, 136 men left the place in a body and picketed the neighborhood. Armed with sticks and hurries, they refused to admit the students who preferred lectures to snowballing, and when one of the professors received a missile on the ear the police had to interfere.

COMMENCEMENT IN THE SCHOOLS

First School Calendar For 1919-20—

Board of Education Must Amend
School Calendar—

Considerable business was transacted at the monthly meeting of the Kingston Board of Education, held Wednesday evening at the high school. President Fleming presided, the other trustees present being Messrs. Atkins, Hale, Herbert, Gill, Kearney and Van Wagoner.

During the session which lasted nearly an hour, the members considered the matter of the amendment of the school calendar.

After the roll call and adoption of the minutes of the preceding meeting a communication was read from Charles E. Nichols, resigning as chairman of School No. 8, owing to the labor of attending to the business and shortening of snow about the large block, being too strenuous for him. The resignation to take effect June 1st, was accepted and on motion of Trustee Gill, referred to the building committee.

A communication was read from Principal Lewis, stating the girls of the high school requested the use of the High School Auditorium on some night in June, for an entertainment, the proceeds to be used as a fund for the equipment of a summer camp for Girl Scouts made up of school girls. The question of admission was discussed and it was stated that it had been printed in the newspapers that the entertainment was to be given by the pupils of Miss Delta Boice, being a repetition of her dancing exhibition given by girls a few days ago at the Kingston Opera House.

Trustee Kearney said that in order to bring this matter up before the Board he would move the request be granted. Trustee Gill amended the matter be laid on the table, which was granted, all voting Aye, excepting Trustee Kearney.

The Supply Committee reported having solicited estimates for furnishing approximately 90 tons of chestnut coal, 90 tons of stove coal, 500 tons of egg coal and approximately 150 tons of semi-bituminous coal for the high school. Bids were received from Teller & Tappan, Thomas J. O'Hara, Palen & Bouton, Kingston Coal Company, Edward T. McGill and Watts & Tammany, each dealer submitting identical estimates, being chestnut, $10.00 per ton, stove, $9.50, egg, $9.70, being net ton of 2,000 pounds, delivered to be made before September 1st in bins.

The committee recommended it be authorized to divide the amount of coal needed by the school in an equitable manner among the local dealers on condition that the entire allotment to each firm be delivered at the prices mentioned on or before September 1st. For semi-bituminous coal estimates had been received from Arthur V. Church, of this city, representing the Riverside Coal Co., $2.95 net ton, f. o. b., mines; $3.20 net ton freight on previous shipment of this coal, total, $5.25, and from Watts & Tammany, Westchester coal, $6.15 net ton, f. o. b., Kingston. Nanty-Glo coal, $5.95 net ton, f. o. b., Kingston.

The committee recommended that proposition of Mr. Church, being lowest estimates for semi-bituminous coal be accepted. The report and recommendations were adopted on motion of Trustee Atkins.

The Supply Committee reported that the season for purchasing janitors' supplies will soon be at hand and that as they are of such a varied class they had to be purchased in different places, it would recommend that the committee be authorized to purchase them in the open market for 1919-1920. Carried.

It was voted that the president of the board and the superintendent of schools be empowered to make all arrangements for the commencement exercises.

The Supply Committee recommended that the board discontinue the services of the Empire Laundry in furnishing hand towels to the grade schools and that the said laundry be notified to remove all its towels from the several school buildings during the week beginning Monday, June 23rd and ending Monday, June 29th.

Also recommended that the board of education purchase a sufficient quantity of towels to supply the needs of the grade schools and that the Supply Committee be authorized to secure estimates for furnishing same and report result of its findings to the board of education. Adopted.

The Teachers Committee reported the following Commencement calendar and the School calendar for 1919-20, which after a little discussion, Trustee Van Wagoner being of the opinion that schools might open earlier, was adopted:

Supt. M. J. Michael, of the public schools, submitted his monthly report, which was on motion filed and superintendent requested to give a copy to the newspapers, for information. The report follows:

To the Honorable, the Board of Education.

Gentlemen: I respectfully report that during the month of May I have visited all the schools of the city and inspected the work in fifty different class rooms, which I find proceeding in the usual manner. The attendance has been good.

Number of resident pupils in attendance, 3,045.

Number of non-resident pupils, 265.

Total, 3,310.

Total days' attendance, 59,999.

Average daily attendance, 2,995.

Number registered since beginning, 3,818.

Per cent of attendance, 98.21.

Per cent of punctuality, 99.84.

Cases of tardiness, 197.

Cases of truancy, 15.

The report of the attendance officers for the month of March and April show that they have investigated 1660 cases, re-investigated 489 cases.

No. arrested and taken to school, 117.

No. arrested and taken before superintendent, 2.

No. arrested and taken before city judge, 6.

No. parents arrested and taken before city judge, 3.

No. of visits made to employers, 24.

No. indigent pupils assisted, 31.

Nature of assistance, shoes and other clothing.

Our attendance officers are rendering especially valuable work to the city in their unostentatious efforts to supply needy children with necessary clothing in order that they may be kept in school. In addition to their other duties they are now required to keep the school census up to date by hunting up all new comers to our city and as far as possible keeping a record of those moving away. All these facts must be recorded under the law in the card catalogue of the school census.

Since my last report the returns from the regents office have been received by the principal of the high school on January regents examinations which shows that 85 per cent of the examination papers written have been accepted at the department and 88 per cent of the papers claimed by our teachers as having passed the requirements are accepted. This seems to be a very excellent record. The principal and teachers are entitled to congratulations on such a fine showing.

Twenty of our teachers have been out of school from one to eight days on account of illness.

It is becoming more and more difficult to secure substitutes to take the places of teachers who are necessarily absent. Substitute teachers in the grades are paid $2 per day for actual service and substitutes in the high school are paid $2.50 per day. This remuneration for expert work no longer attracts to our substitute service teachers legally qualified to teach. We have only one such teacher now on whom we feel free to call. Were it not for the fact that some of our former teachers who reside in the city, as a matter of accommodation to us sometimes leave their homes to take the places of absent teachers, we would find it difficult to keep every room in our schools open all the time. Even with the help of these former teachers we are not always able to find a substitute for a sick teacher in which event we are compelled to divide the work of the sick teacher between two of the regular teachers who already have as much as they ought to do without the care of additional children.

The census reports from the field force, health bureau and the schools show: Changes of address within the city, 123; children moving out of city, 63; into the city 48; becoming 4 years of age, 52; total 236. Work certificates issued by health officer, 8; birth certificates transcribed at health bureau and filed at census bureau, 34; admissions, transfers and withdrawals from public schools, 202; admissions, transfers and withdrawals from private and parochial schools, 35; total reports received, 555.

M. J. MICHAEL, Supt.
Superintendent Michael called attention to the Lockwood bill pertaining to new state law increasing salaries of supervisory school board members and teaching staffs. President Fleming said that it would be necessary to revise and amend the by-laws of the board of education to conform to the provisions of the new law and file them with the state. The matter had been gone over recently at a meeting of educators from the third-class cities of the state, and work was now going on to make a uniform set of by-laws for each third class city that would comply with the act. He suggested the matter be referred to the committee on rules, and that the by-laws be amended and revised by it, and submitted to the board for action in time for filing with the state educational department.

It was announced that the membership of the standing committee had been changed, Mr. Herbert being substituted on all committees in place of Mr. Washburn, whom he succeeded as a trustee. The board of education meeting then adjourned.
